LR 209

great, something to do. That means we're not home getting in trouble or whatever; we're not on the streets. We're out enjoying ourself. And I guess it's my fault that some of you may not like the State Fair. Maybe I didn't sell it. Maybe I haven't told you. Maybe they haven't sold it. So I guess I'll take the blame here. But I don't know what else I can say, and I...maybe you can tell...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR CUDABACK: ...that I kind of like the State Fair and I think it's good for our youth. I'm an old guy. I'm a bachelor. By the way, yesterday I was laying blocks for a home that I'm building. This young man, 28 years old, was laying the blocks. And I said I had to go to Lincoln tonight and in the morning would be there. We're discussing the State Fair and gambling and so on. He said, State Fair? He said, I...and I told him there was a chance that maybe it might not be around in the future because of certain reasons. He said, well, I went to that last year and I had a great time. He said, I hope it's around. No, and I won't tell you what else he said, but he enjoyed it, a 28-year-old person. I'm talking too much. I apologize for that, but I guess that's the way it is. Keep in mind, a quarter of a million of Nebraskans.

SPEAKER BROMM: Time. Thank you, Senator Cudaback. Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Bromm, members of the Legislature, just wanted to make a comment, a couple comments in support of the plan here. I think, like most everybody else, and following up on Senator Cudaback's comments, it's not the fair as it is that all of us or most of us are supporting, I think. It's the fair as it could be, the fair as most of us think it could be; that is, a celebration of all of Nebraska. In fact, a celebration of all of Nebraska, the only celebration of all of Nebraska that we actually have in this state. So it's that that we're looking to. But I wanted to show you some things and read quickly through some things to indicate to you that there have been a large group of people working on the whole idea of the State Fair and reprogramming needs and facility needs. This big
